Smith's Tonic Syrup

FOR THE CURE OF

FEVER and AGUE

Or CHILLS and FEVER,

AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.

THE EARTHQUAKE.

Graphic Description of the Wreck of Charleston.

THE APPEARANCE OF THE CITY

Geological Phases of the Disturbance—Great Quantities of Volcanic Matter Ejected—Terrible Experience of a Train

CHARLESTON, Sept. 2.—The principal streets are littered with bricks and rubbish. The city hall escaped damage. The massive portico of St. Michael's church was wrenched from the body of the church and cracks in the main building extend to the foundation. All of the portico of Bishop Northrop's residence was swept away. The Academy of Music appears to be uninjured. Charleston hotel loses its ceilings and part of its coping. The German Artillery hall is somewhat injured. The water works building and reservoir are uninjured. Several buildings on Haynes street are gutted. The injury to St. Phillip's church previously [illegible] the spire and the [illegible] clock in the tower are torn down [illegible].

On Sullivan's Island the shock was severe but [illegible] little injury was done and no lives lost. Many of the summer visitors came to the city this morning. On James Island the earth was cracked in many places and from the fissures issued [illegible] bodies of cold water mixed with sand [illegible]. The clocks everywhere stopped at about [illegible] P. M. At Mount Pleasant there was a general sinking up but no loss of life. There are many fissures and cavities from which fresh water and mud have come.

The mud or sand has also come to the surface in Charleston. It is contended here that there was a twist or turn in the motion of the earthquake and that it had not simply an undulating motion. Articles of furniture and [illegible] have been found which are turned partly around in addition to the visible effects of the simple wave motion.

NO MORE SHOCKS.

CHARLESTON, Sept. [illegible]—The last earthquake shock was experienced here at 11:30 last night, since which time there have been no vibrations. The people are just beginning to pick up courage to come out. Efforts are being made to clear paths through the streets for the passage of vehicles and pedestrians and the city once more begins to show some signs of life. For two long days and nights of horror women and children have been camping out in parks and squares. It is impossible to give any correct estimate of the loss of life and property. For two days and nights the people have done nothing but huddle on squares, small detached parties going out to dig out the dead from the debris or succor the wounded.

The first systematic effort to get at the facts is now making. The list of dead recognized and reported this morning at this time 11 A. M. foots up sixteen and the search has only commenced. The list of wounded will go into hundreds. About seven-eighths of the houses and public buildings in the city are either damaged or wrecked. Even historic St. Michael's and St. Phillip's are so badly wrecked that it is feared they will have to be taken down. Waves from 9:5[illegible] o'clock Tuesday night have been coming about every five or six hours. There has been none now for twelve hours and strong hopes are entertained that it is over.

MORE AND MORE ALARMING.

Specials to the News and Courier from points in South Carolina ranging from the extreme northwest to the sea coast report severe shocks of earthquake with more or less resulting damage to property throughout and loss of life. At Orangeburg the people became so much alarmed that many moved to Columbia.

As details of the calamity in this city are gathered its effects become more and more alarming. It is feared now that much distress will prevail. By far the larger part of those whose property has been wrecked or seriously damaged belong to the poorer classes. The people are as cheerful as possible under the terrible circumstances and are trying to restore order out of chaos. The aggregate loss is expected to reach $[illegible]000,000. Wharves, warehouses, and business facilities of the city generally were unaffected by the catastrophe, and Charleston is as ready as ever for the transaction of business.

THIRTY-THREE KILLED.

The official total of deaths is thirty-three. The wounded will probably number 100. Business is still suspended, the whole attention of the people being given to providing for refugees and making residences safe. Bricklayers have advanced their rates to $6 a day. The city council will probably meet to-morrow to provide measures for relieving the poor. Expressions of gratitude are heard on all sides for assistance offered to Charleston, of which the suffering people will [illegible] themselves. Confidence is gradually returning, but much apprehension is still felt.

LIST OF THE KILLED.

Following is an official list of those killed by the earthquake or who have since died from injuries:

Whites—Peter Powers, Mrs. C. Barber, Ainsley H. Robson, Robert Alexander, Charles Albrecht, B. I. Macadie, Patrick Lynch, Anna [illegible] Fork, Mrs. Rachel Ahrens, Goldie Ahrens.

Colored—Thomas Wilson, Wm. Dean, Annie Glover, Z. Sawyer, William Grant, Alexander Miller, John H. Lodge, Hannah Smalls, Mary Barnwell, Marice Hickney, James Brown, Angelin Davids, [illegible] Roberts, Robert [illegible], Grace Fleming, Rosa Murray, Oliver Pickett, John Cook, Clarissa Simmons, Hannah Harris, Sarah Middleton, Rebecca Ward.

The following additional deaths are reported: John Cook, colored; J. E. Sherman, [illegible]; daughter of Isaac Sawyer, colored barber; [illegible] baby child of Mrs. Barnes.

THE FIRES.

The Wrecked City Illuminated by Half a Dozen Fierce Blazes.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 2.—A large fire at the corner of [illegible] streets started after the earthquake shock and was burning fiercely about two hours. At last three streams could be [illegible]. At least six houses were on fire and all of them were completely burned.

The fire still advanced and it appeared as if the whole block would be burned down unless [illegible]. [illegible] hold hoses.

A serious fire broke out in the southwest corner of [illegible] and St. Phillip streets and two two-story houses were completely destroyed. The fire burned [illegible] an hour before the arrival of a [illegible].

[illegible] was the demand for them all over the city. Fortunately however there was very little wind blowing, and neighboring houses, almost all of which are built of wood, were kept from catching by means of buckets of water. It was [illegible] o'clock before a fire engine arrived. A number of hands assisted the firemen in stretching hose and with one stream of water the fire was kept from spreading [illegible] the arrival of another engine [illegible] when the fire was gradually subdued.

OTHER FIRES.

A two-story wooden building on King street on the west side between Vanderhorst and Warren streets and occupied by Schudder Bros. as a fruit store caught fire during the convulsion and was burned to the ground. The fire extended before the arrival of engines to a two-story wooden building on the north side, occupied as a tailor shop by [illegible] Mintz. The two-story brick tenement on the south side occupied by [illegible], the dentist, and Mrs. Myers, and two wooden buildings were destroyed [illegible]. About half past 10 o'clock Alderman [illegible] had succeeded in getting a stream of water to play on the flames and there was no danger of the fire spreading. The loss and insurance could not be ascertained.

One of the first fires that broke out was that which was caused by an overturned lamp in a house on Blake street. About four houses at the corner of St. George and St. Phillips streets were burned in the early morning.

EXTINGUISHED.

Most of the fires in different sections of the city were subdued by half past 1 o'clock, saving that at King street near Broad, which continued to burn briskly. There was but one engine available. Fortunately the water mains were not injured and there was an abundant supply of water, only means of conducting it to the fire was wanting. There was no wind blowing from 10 until nearly 3 o'clock, by which time the fire had been got under control and the danger past.

At that hour every park, square and vacant lot in the city was occupied by people. It is safe to say that the whole of Charleston passed the night out of doors. In many cases shattered houses were revisited and children and women were supplied with clothing and covering. That infinite mercy which seems to be meted to a stricken people so tempered the wind and weather that a frightened and helpless people were spared suffering and hardships.

The dead were laid in the open air, the wounded were provided with temporary pallets in lawns or [illegible] streets, and every one waited patiently for the coming of the dawn, which would almost [illegible] the horrors of the occasion.

THE DAMAGE TO PROPERTY.

A Description of the City as it Appears at Present.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 2.—The people are gradually taking [illegible] account of the details of the injury [illegible] and the list of damages to the property is startling. A limited section in the south of the city is a sample of the whole. Standing at the postoffice and looking west an almost impassable roadway of debris meets the eye. The building of the chamber of commerce is badly damaged, a portion of the south and east walls having been torn down by the violence of the shock. The buildings of Walter [illegible] & Bogs [illegible] have also suffered while the heavy granite slabs which formed the parapet of the News and Courier building are down [illegible] the slate roof and [illegible] exposed.

Almost the entire roof of the building occupied by Myers' cigar store and Smith's stencil establishment [illegible] torn off leaving the upper floor exposed. The [illegible] building at the corner of Church street was badly damaged. Most buildings on the street are more or less damaged.

But the violence of the earthquake is most perceptible at the historic intersection of Broad and Meeting streets. The police station is almost a complete wreck. The upper edge of the wall has been torn down and part of the north wall has fallen on the roof of the porch, carrying it away [illegible] large fluted pillars standing. The city hall apparently escaped serious damage but is badly cracked on the east wall and the [illegible] badly damaged, the wall [illegible] cracked in several places and [illegible] of the roof and gables [illegible] thrown to the ground.

ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH.

The worst wreck in the locality however is St. Michael's church, which seems to be doomed to destruction. The steeple, repairs on which have just been completed, seems to be intact, but it is out of plumb and is in momentary danger of falling. The [illegible] porch has been wrenched from the body of the church and the building has been cracked in [illegible] places. One crack in the north wall extends from the eaves to the lower window [illegible]. The hands on the clock [illegible] which must have been [illegible] on Tuesday night.

[illegible]

THE FASHIONABLE BOULEVARD.

West of King street the most serious damage is to the Episcopal residence. What a scene of desolation the fashionable boulevard of Charleston presents. Commencing at Broad street one passes three blocks of ruined houses. [illegible] third building from the corner of [illegible] street [illegible] as far north as Tolly's old stand next the graveyard. The few houses left on that side of the street are more or less shattered and [illegible]. Few houses on the west side north of Broad have escaped the general fate, though [illegible] other portions of the street. An almost vacant lot on the west side of the street is occupied by the families who [illegible] camped out on the sward with a few household effects saved from the flames.

From Queen street to Hassack's [illegible] almost every house is shattered [illegible] lot on the east side of the street is occupied by several hundred people [illegible].

The Victoria hotel appears to have escaped and the Academy of Music shows no signs of earthquake.

From Market to Hasel street the damage does not seem to be as great as at other portions of the city.

GEOLOGICAL PHASES.

How the Earth was Affected by the Shock—Volcanic Matter Ejected.

CHARLESTON, Sept. [illegible] A special report from Mount Pleasant opposite Charleston says that a [illegible] near the German church which on Tuesday was perfectly dry is now full of fresh water. Near [illegible] street there is a [illegible] occupied by a colored man that is surrounded by yawning chasms extending through the earth's surface for ten feet and over. All around this there are signs of fresh water and masses of mud with green-looking soft substances that have never been seen before. It is contended [illegible] that the mud and other substances found around the village are volcanic matter.

[illegible] after the first [illegible] shock on Tuesday night there was a decided and distinct smell of escaping sulphurous acid gas over the entire village. The [illegible] lasted throughout the night and was distinct in those localities where cavities in the earth were most numerous. Some say portions of the mud thrown up by water spouts were strongly impregnated with sulphur and that small portions of sulphur can be found in the mud.

MOUNDS OF CLAY AND SAND.

Not far from Charleston on the road to Summerville extensive mounds of clay were thrown up, and hillocks of sand. In most cases in the shape of inverted cones, the hollow part of which had evidently been formed by the action of the water returning to the depths from which it had been raised. In many cases the erupted matter has streamed away from the breaks in the surface of the earth to a distance of from twenty to fifty feet. In other places there were fissures that almost invariably extended from north to south. These fissures were [illegible] wide and [illegible] tended downward always in a slanting direction.

The matter that was [illegible] and was mixed with gravel. There was also a little shale and [illegible] resemble that which is thrown from the bottom of phosphate pits along the river. The water in some places has the taste of our artesian water, but in many instances it was just as clear and [illegible] as that from mountain springs.

These evidences of great [illegible] extended far and near [illegible] trustworthy information that cracks and fissures are everywhere [illegible]. Strangely [illegible] the constant shocks that were felt [illegible] to the height of [illegible] feet. This [illegible] the result of the cracks being filled with water and the [illegible] by [illegible] succeeding shock. These appearances were [illegible] extraordinary [illegible] of the earthquake [illegible] was water emitted [illegible] the depth that was at first [illegible].

EXPERIENCE OF A TRAIN.

[illegible] Ten Mile hill [illegible] on Tuesday night. The down [illegible] train jumped the [illegible] engineer Burns and fireman Arnold [illegible] tremendous [illegible] which the train took in the dark. It is said [illegible] gave way and the engine first plunged down a temporary [illegible]. [illegible] Northeastern railroads and [illegible] of several hundred yards in walking [illegible] the [illegible] had the appearance of having been alternately raised and depressed [illegible] their last position. The second indicated that [illegible] the rails in [illegible] curves most of them taking the shape [illegible] and others [illegible] latter [illegible] length [illegible]. These freaks [illegible] were not less than five [illegible] between Seven Mile [illegible] and Jedburg. In other places the [illegible] had the appearance of being [illegible] for [illegible] always in these cases in the [illegible].

[illegible]

The train at the time of the earthquake was running along at the usual speed and when about [illegible] south [illegible] felt the [illegible] terrible experience. It was freighted with [illegible] hundred excursionists returning from the [illegible]. They [illegible] happy [illegible] when all [illegible] in the language of one of the [illegible] the train appeared to have left the track and was going up, up, up, into the air. This was the rising wave. Suddenly it descended, and as it rapidly fell it was flung first very violently to the east, the cars apparently leaning over at an angle of not less than forty-five degrees. Then the train righted and was hurled as with the roar of artillery over to the west and finally subsided on [illegible] downwards [illegible] the second wave. The engineer put down the brakes tight but so great was the original and added momentum that the train leaped ahead. It is said that the train [illegible] galloped along the track, the front and rear trucks of the coaches rising and falling alternately.

The [illegible] confusion prevailed. Women and [illegible] the bravest [illegible] momentary expectation of a more terrible catastrophe. The train was then taken [illegible] direction of Jedburg, and on the way [illegible] of the earthquake was terribly [illegible]. The train had [illegible] passed over one of [illegible] already described.

PHENOMENA AT SUMMERVILLE.

[illegible] of the situation at Summerville on [illegible] were not observed in Charleston to [illegible] extent. All during the day there was a [illegible] discharge of heavy guns at intervals of about [illegible] and was like the [illegible] at a great distance. All of these explosions were [illegible] the earth [illegible] subterranean discharges.

A remarkable fact was noted in Summerville in respect to the bubbling of water from the interior of the earth. Nearly all the wells being at low water [illegible] looking down into one [illegible] could on the eve of any [illegible] detonation [illegible] the water rise in the wells and after the shock again subside.

ANOTHER NIGHT OF FEAR.

Last night the [illegible] scenes of fright and fear were re-enacted in the public square. Scores of women, [illegible] of them almost [illegible] and infants in arms, were driven to the necessity of spending the night [illegible] only such covering [illegible] of blankets, shawls, etc. [illegible] a heavy [illegible] passed through the city. Its coming [illegible] a number of expressions dim and distant which commenced to be heard fully five minutes before the vibration was felt. This one was somewhat more pronounced than the two which had preceded it—one at 8:25 A. M., and the other at 5:10 P. M., and as it passed by to the northwest there followed sounds which indicated the falling of walls or buildings. This was the last vibration last night.

At daybreak there was a movement of many people picking up their tents and departing to their shattered homes.

In St. Andrew's parish fourteen miles on the other side of the Ashley river bridge the country is cut up by small fissures and holes of from an inch to two feet in diameter. These holes have emitted blue mud and gray sand in large quantities and the whole surface of this area is covered with little mounds. People say mud and water boiled up from five to ten feet in height.

MORE CHEERFUL FEELING.

There is a more cheerful feeling to-night but no sense of security will return [illegible] the shattered houses [illegible]. Offers of assistance are coming from different quarters and it is expected that the city council will organize a relief committee to-morrow.

Despite the losses by earthquake Charleston is in as good a position as ever for the transaction of [illegible] trade. Their [illegible] warehouses [illegible] the compresses are in trim and the [illegible] factories are ready to deal [illegible] with all business [illegible]. This statement is made to correct an existing [illegible] that the commercial facilities of the city are impaired.

[illegible] WIRES.

[illegible] Sept. [illegible] The Western Union telegraph [illegible] messages sent to [illegible] delivered on [illegible] the general confusion. The hotels are empty and the people have deserted their dwellings and are scattered in open lots and squares [illegible]. The [illegible] of the Western Union in Charleston is badly injured. The batteries were destroyed and all the instruments ruined by falling brick and plaster. An office has been opened [illegible] and a half from the old one and two wires have been placed in working order. None of their employes were seriously injured. At 7 o'clock this morning all the operators were compelled to quit their posts and seek rest. The work has been [illegible] had obtained no sleep. At 1 o'clock this morning another shock of earthquake was felt but it did no damage.

RELIEF MEASURES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. [illegible]—Application was received at the treasury this morning from the mayor of Wilmington, N. C., for transportation for a relief committee from Wilmington to Charleston. The steamer Colfax was immediately placed at the disposal of the committee. Gen. Drum, acting secretary of war, has directed tents to be sent to Charleston to shelter homeless people.

THE BULGARIAN CRISIS.

Alexander Writes a Submissive Letter to the Czar who Replies Coldly.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 30.—Prince Alexander sent the following telegram to the czar through the Russian consulate at Rustchuk:

Sire:—Having reassumed the government of Bulgaria I venture to offer to your imperial majesty my most respectful thanks for the action of your consul at Rustchuk, whose official presence at my reception showed the Bulgarians that Russia did not approve of the revolutionary act directed against my person. I thank your imperial majesty for dispatching Prince Dolgorouki as envoy extraordinary to Bulgaria. My first act on resuming power is to assure your majesty of my firm intention to make every sacrifice to forward your majesty's magnanimous intention to extricate Bulgaria from the grave crisis through which she is passing. I beg of your majesty that you will [illegible] Prince [illegible] to place himself in direct communication with myself as speedily as possible. I shall be happy to give your majesty decided proofs of my unalterable devotion to your august person. Monarchical principle compels me to restore the legality of my crown in Bulgaria and Roumelia. Russia having given me my crown, it is into the hands of Russia's sovereign I am ready to surrender it.

The czar replied to Alexander as follows: I cannot approve of your return to Bulgaria, foreseeing [illegible] sinister consequences for a country already so sorely tried. The mission of Prince Dolgorouki has become inexpedient. I shall abstain so long as your highness remains in Bulgaria from any intervention in view of the sad condition to which the country is reduced. Your highness must decide your own course. I reserve to myself to judge what my father's venerated memory, the interests of Russia and the peace of the East require of me.

A GREAT SENSATION.

PARIS, Sept. [illegible]—Publication of the correspondence between the czar and Prince Alexander has created a great sensation in political circles here. The czar's menacing reply to the prince's submissive epistle is regarded by diplomats as insuring Alexander's abdication and Russia's occupation of Bulgaria. It is feared that war will ensue unless [illegible] intercedes.

ALEXANDER'S RETURN TO [illegible].

[illegible] Sept. [illegible]—The city is gaily decorated in honor of the return of Prince Alexander [illegible] and crowded with visitors come to [illegible] the citizens in celebrating the event. American and Mexican Troops Fight over Geronimo.

AND THE WILY CHIEF ESCAPES.

The Local Option Act of Washington Territory Decided to be Inoperative—Death of Rev. Edward R. Geary at Eugene.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. [illegible] The Chronicle's Tombstone special says: A rumor has reached here that Mexican troops demanded from American troops the release of Geronimo. The latter refused and a fight ensued in which five Mexicans were killed and two Americans wounded and [illegible] which Geronimo escaped.

A special to the Morning Call from Tombstone confirms the rumor that Mexican troops demanded from American troops the release of Geronimo [illegible] the refusal of the latter to accord the request. It is stated [illegible] and that while it was going on [illegible] escaped.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

THE LOCAL OPTION ACT [illegible].

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 2.—The habeas corpus case of [illegible] Sebring, arrested [illegible] the local option act in selling intoxicating liquors, was decided by District Judge Langford at Dayton this morning. The petitioner was discharged [illegible] the law declared null and void as a delegation of legislative power to the people in precincts which are not municipal corporations, as a repeal of the [illegible] law of the territory by the people instead of the legislature, and as taking private property without compensation. Sharpstein & Sharpstein appeared for petitioner; R. F. Sturdevant and D. J. Crowley for the territory.

The decision is on the ground that the act was not a law when it left the legislature but a proposition to become a law when the people in the different precincts ratified it, this being legislation by the people, to whom no such power is granted.

NOTES FROM WALLA WALLA.

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 2.—At the republican primaries [illegible] several women were on the tickets [illegible]. In the south precincts so far as counted the highest number of votes cast for a woman was twenty-four.

Tom Toole, a gambler, was shot in the head this morning at Ellensburg by Tom Lunn in a dispute over faro.

CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

One Ballot Taken for a Candidate for Governor—The Platform.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2. The democratic state convention resumed its labors at 10:30 this morning. The first business was the nomination of a candidate for the remaining place on the supreme bench. When a ballot was taken the result shown was favorable to Judge Byron Waters of San Bernardino, he having received [illegible] votes out of a total of 482.

The committee on platform and resolutions then presented their report.

The platform endorses Cleveland's administration, recommends the free coinage of silver, demands restoration of the wool tariff of 1867, favors the passage of wine bills now before congress, approves of labor co-operative societies, demands abrogation of the Burlingame Chinese treaty and favors legislation providing for the deportation of all Chinese now in the United States. It expresses sympathy with the Irish people in their efforts for home rule, favors equitable distribution of the waters of the state for irrigation purposes while granting to the state the right to assume control of water under laws to be enacted for that purpose.

NOMINATIONS FOR GOVERNOR.

Nominations for governor were then proceeded with. R. B. Mitchell of San Francisco nominated ex-Mayor Bryant of San Francisco. Eugene Duprey of San Francisco seconded it.

Senator Johnson of Sonoma county nominated Patrick Reddy of Mono county. Delvalle of Los Angeles seconded Reddy's nomination.

J. J. [illegible] of San Francisco arose and nominated Washington Bartlett, present mayor of San Francisco. He referred to him as the one man among all who had ever [illegible] the greatest enemy of corporations. Bartlett, he added, is a granite platform in himself. With him at the head of the democratic ticket the republican party will receive its death [illegible] in November next. Ex-Senator P. T. O'Connor seconded Bartlett's nomination.

[illegible] of Fresno nominated ex-Congressman C. P. Berry, and [illegible] Campbell of Sonoma seconded it.

S. L. Nicol of Tuolumne nominated M. F. Tarpey of Alameda. If you nominate him, he said, the republican party will never be swift enough to overtake him. J. E. McElrath of Alameda seconded Tarpey's nomination.

J. M. Warden, of San Luis Obispo, nominated [illegible] Rose of Los Angeles, but [illegible] Patton of Los Angeles withdrew Rose's name.

Nominations were then closed. Each of the candidates [illegible] before the convention and in turn [illegible] the platform. Reddy's appearance was [illegible] greeted, as was also that of Mayor Bartlett.

Balloting for governor then began. The first ballot was as follows: Total vote 4[illegible]; necessary to a choice 24[illegible]; Bartlett 1[illegible]; Reddy [illegible]; Berry 1[illegible]; Tarpey [illegible]0; Bryant [illegible]; Curtis 1; Coleman 5.

The convention then adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

FOR CONGRESS.

The First congressional district to-day nominated T. [illegible] Thompson, present secretary of state, for congress.

STATE DISPATCHES.

DEATH OF REV. EDWARD R. GEARY.

EUGENE CITY, Sept. [illegible]—Died at his [illegible] Rev. Edward R. Geary, D.D. His remains were buried in the Masonic cemetery this afternoon [illegible] services at the Presbyterian church.

[illegible] Geary was born at Hagerstown, Md., April [illegible] 1811, and during his boyhood [illegible]. After this he went south and [illegible] years in the state of Alabama, and [illegible] principal of [illegible] at Alexandria, Va. After having [illegible] entered the Western Theological seminary [illegible] several years engaged in the ministry, to which nearly all the remainder of his life has been devoted.

Dr. Geary came to Oregon in [illegible] 1851 and shared the joys and trials of the pioneers of this early period. [illegible] comforting [illegible] the gospel he [illegible] upheld and [illegible] among them as their only [illegible]. During President Buchanan's administration he was for three years superintendent of Indian affairs on this coast, and was afterwards offered positions of trust under President Lincoln, which he declined.

Dr. Geary's first wife died in 18[illegible] leaving him two daughters. He was married to his present widowed wife in 18[illegible], by whom he has had three sons and five daughters.

We have thus imperfectly sketched the career of one that has endeared himself to a large circle of acquaintances throughout Oregon and especially the citizens of Eugene, among whom he has resided for [illegible] years. He was zealous in the discharge of every duty. He abhorred sin and iniquity [illegible]. He was [illegible] in his faith and interpretation of the scriptures, but tolerant toward all other organizations of Christian people. To his non-professing acquaintances he was always cheerful and anxious for their temporal and spiritual welfare. His life was that of the righteous man and his end peace. Of his host of friends it can truly be said [illegible] the mourners go about the streets.

CANYON CITY STAGE ROBBED.

BAKER CITY, Sept. [illegible]—The Canyon City stage was robbed to-day near Brittain's station. The robbers took Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express and [illegible] from a Chinaman [illegible]. The sheriff and posse [illegible] pursuit.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. [illegible] A long but not sharp shock of earthquake was felt here at a quarter to [illegible].

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

[illegible] ALL OVER THE ROOM.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The Washington correspondent of the World says that yesterday in Willard's house ex-Congressman Worthington threw a glass of beer into the face of John R. Niernsee, of the supervising architect's office, after asking him "Do you know any way by which I can insult you?" A glass of whisky and a glass of water followed the beer and then Niernsee struck Worthington with a cane. The latter then pulled a six shooter. This he snapped several times at his antagonist, but the pistol failed to explode. The man fought all over the barroom and out into the hallway. Finally Worthington was [illegible] hands, a [illegible] disarmed him. Worthington and Niernsee have been enemies for a long time. Both hail from the same state and although they have long lived here they never had a personal encounter before. Worthington was a member of congress from Nevada and afterward carpet bag collector of customs at Charleston, S. C. At present he is private secretary to Congressman Smalls, colored representative from South Carolina.

BEWARE OF POLITICS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. [illegible]—The acting secretary of the treasury has issued a circular calling the attention of [illegible] officers and employes of the treasury department to the [illegible] July 14, 1886, [illegible] against interference [illegible] simply calls attention to the president's order, which is printed thereon [illegible].

THE TELEPHONE SUIT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2. The government counsel in the telephone suit are busily engaged in preparing an answer to the demurrer filed by the Bell telephone company in the Columbus case and their brief is practically completed. Arguments will begin on the 6th day of September and the government's case will be presented by Messrs. Thurman, Lowery and Chandler.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

[illegible] Lamar [illegible] Wilson [illegible]

SAVANNAH, Sept. 2.—Postal Inspector Simpson, of Atlanta, to-day [illegible] A. N. Wilson from the [illegible] Capt. C. W. Lamar in [illegible]. Wilson had positively refused to turn over the office [illegible] saying, "I am still postmaster of Savannah. President Cleveland had no right to suspend [illegible] constitution." Wilson was suspended for offensive partisanship.

VICTORIA SCHILLING LEAVES HER HUSBAND.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The story is printed here that Victoria Schilling has deserted her coachman husband and it is presumed has returned to her father Morosini.

NEW YORK, Sept. [illegible]—Victoria Schilling, daughter of Morosini, partner of Jay Gould, who married Coachman Schilling just two years ago, has run away from her husband. The latter came home last evening and found the rooms ransacked and a [illegible] from Victoria saying that she had gone. Mrs. Schilling has recently been visited by a gentleman of fine appearance and they were seen together frequently in the streets. It is said that her stock of jewels has been on the increase for some weeks and that the postman's visits to the house were always signalized by a letter for Mrs. Schilling. [illegible] of them were addressed to her in the [illegible] the letters were also received in profusion. There was an impression last night in [illegible] quarters up town that if Victoria has left her husband [illegible] with a handsomer man, the man [illegible] her father, that a reconciliation has been effected and that in a few days the fact will be announced. But the impression was also that if she returned to her father her husband has been left out of the calculations.

PLUMBERS LOCKED OUT.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Union members in eleven plumber shops were locked out by their employers this morning. Notices to hands were posted up in the shops to-day requiring the men to work under the rule of the master plumbers' association instead of those of the union, and especially as to the number of apprentices employed in the shops. There are 1600 journeymen plumbers in the city, and [illegible]00 licensed plumbers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—At a meeting of master plumbers to-day it was resolved that if the journeymen plumbers' demand for control of apprentices is not withdrawn by to-morrow evening to declare a general lockout. At the meeting reports were presented showing that in half the shops the men were working under the association's rules. In other shops the men are working provisionally until action is taken by the union.

LAKE VESSELS SHUT OUT OF CANADA.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—The Inter Ocean to-morrow will say: There are some marine men here who believe the decision of the Canadian ministry excluding vessels of the United States from going from one Canadian port to another to get cargoes will seriously affect the Georgian bay trade. They claim that if the ruling is enforced a great many vessels will be compelled to abandon the trade altogether, as they cannot obtain cargoes at Midland or Collingwood ports, where grain is received exclusively. Heretofore American vessels have carried grain to these two ports and proceeded from there to one or other of the islands in the bay and procured cargoes of cedar or salt to bring back to Chicago. Now that this source of revenue is closed they will have to seek some other trade.

A MINISTER'S LIBEL SUIT.

DETROIT, Sept. [illegible]—Rev. Laporte's long threatened libel suit against Rev. Hendyckx was commenced in the Wayne circuit court this morning. Lawyer James J. Atkinson filed a bill which claims $5000 damages on account of an article in the Free Press of April 21 giving an interview with a prominent clergyman who said that Father Laporte had been ordered at Rome to do penance there for misconduct in this diocese and to report to his bishop at Montreal for such further [illegible] as the latter might impose. Mr. Hendyckx was the clergyman interviewed.

YELLOW FEVER.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1.—Great excitement was created to-day all along the lake shore when it became known that Drs. Hunt, Soloman and Scoles had declared cases of fever at Biloxi to be yellow fever. At Biloxi a panic prevailed and hundreds of persons came to this city by train to-night. They say they do not fear yellow fever but are not willing to suffer the inconveniences of quarantine. Ocean Springs and Bay St. Louis have already established quarantine against Biloxi.

PATTI'S FAREWELL TOUR.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, SEPT 3, 1886

THE TARIFF AND WAGES

Mr Blaine argues that the present American tariff is well adapted to secure high wages in all departments of industry. Henry George, in the North American Review for August, recites the present industrial condition of Pennsylvania, and shows that despite the so-called protective laws, it is more deplorable than in any other state in the Union. Pennsylvania has a population of 4,282,891, distributed over an area one-third larger than Ireland, and within one-seventh as large as England, giving an average of but 95 to the square mile, as compared with [illegible] to the square mile in Ireland, and 484 in England. This area of 45,000 square miles, has a rich soil, a temperate climate, unexhausted mines of coal and iron, vast reservoirs of mineral oil and natural gas, water communication with the Atlantic, the great lakes and the gulf of Mexico. For this rich state protection has done its best. The Pacific coast pays $10 per ton more for railway iron than she could buy it for of England, and yet Pennsylvania makes but 50 cents per ton. To protect Pennsylvania we pay on coal a larger duty than the cost of mining it. And yet the labor of Pennsylvania is discontented, as shown by the constant report of strikes and labor troubles in that state.

Coal mining in Pennsylvania employs about 140,000 persons. According to the report of the Pennsylvania bureau of statistics for 1883 the actual weekly earnings for miners on contract was from $7 10 to $8 84; for miners on wages $6 30 to $7 10. Inside laborers earned from $6 14 to $6 30, outside laborers from $4 91 to $5 61. The miners themselves put their average earnings at $25 to $30 per month, according to locality. The report for 1885 gives the average earnings at $6 67 per week for anthracite mining, and $6 21 for bituminous mining. This miserable wages is paid for work executed underground, often where the miner can not stand upright, where he is constantly wet from the dripping of the rocks, where he is liable to death by explosions of fire damp, by falling rocks. Frequently he is buried alive and perishes miserably by suffocation or starvation.

Out of these miserable earnings the miner must pay for the explosives he uses, for the sharpening of his tools and for the oil and cotton burned in his lamp. Furthermore the wages are largely paid not in cash, but in the use of company tenements and in goods furnished at high prices from the company stores. The average rent of these tenements is $5 per month, deducted from the wages earned by what is termed a "cut-throat" lease, by which the tenant authorizes the stoppage of rent out of his wages, waives the benefit of the exemption laws and waives legal notice of expulsion, so that he may be evicted on five days' notice. The prices at the company stores are from 25 to 40 per cent. higher than in ordinary stores. At nearly all the mines the workmen are required to deal at the company stores under pain of dismissal. Out of the monthly income of the miner he has to pay the company for rent, tool sharpening, powder and oil, and coal for family use, $9 10, and this amount leaves a monthly balance of $10 90 to support and clothe the family. These are the figures given to Gov Pattison in the petition of the miners of Clearfield county asking for a redress of grievances.

The companies usually own the land of the village, they neither sell nor lease building sites, they allow no free store to be set up where they own the land. the miners are paid by the month and must perforce trade at the company store. A site for a cabin was refused a crippled miner who had fought all through the war. a poor widow was prohibited from selling candies, tape and shoe strings by the company store. The power of the sole landlord makes him able to regulate trade, control amusements. The postoffice and telegraph office are in the company store. It is a land of petty, grinding tyranny in all matters, industrial or social, more or less tolerable according to the temper of the company autocrats.

THE ELECTION SEASON.

Political campaigns are in progress all over the country at this time. On the 6th inst Arkansas will elect state officers and members of the legislature, choosing her congressmen at a separate election November 2. On the 7th inst. Vermont elects state officers, legislature and congressmen. On the 13th inst. Maine elects a governor, legislature and congressmen. On October 6 Georgia elects state officers and legislature, but like Arkansas, will vote for congressmen on November 2. On November 2—the election day for most of the states—California, Colorado and Connecticut respectively will elect state officers, legislature and congressmen, Delaware elects governor, legislature and congressmen. Florida, legislature and members of congress, Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, minor state officers, legislature and congressmen. Kansas, full board of state officers, legislature and congressmen, Kentucky, Louisiana and Maryland, congressmen only, Massachusetts, Michigan and Minnesota, state officers, legislature and congressmen, Mississippi, congressmen only, Missouri, minor state officers and congressmen. Nebraska and Nevada, state officers, legislature and congressmen. New Hampshire and New Jersey, governor, legislature and congressmen. New York a judge of the court of appeals, assemblymen and members of congress. North Carolina, justices of the supreme court, legislature and congressmen, Ohio, minor state officers and congressmen, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Texas and Wisconsin, state officers, legislature in whole or in part and congressmen. Tennessee, governor, legislature and congressmen. Virginia, congressmen only. West Virginia, members of congress and [illegible] legislature.

State elections [illegible] which have been already [illegible] April Rhode Island [illegible] to the constitution [illegible] election [illegible] of congress [illegible] elect state officers, legislature and congressmen. In August [illegible] elected judges of the state supreme court. On August [illegible] Alabama elected state officers [illegible] the legislature, and on November [illegible] vote for members of congress.

In addition to the above-reported elections for state officers on November 2 Florida will on that date vote upon the adoption of the proposed new constitution of the state, which was framed by a convention that met in 1885. Illinois will vote upon a proposed amendment to the constitution of the state to abolish the contract system in the prisons of the state. Minnesota votes upon a proposed amendment to the constitution of the state to facilitate the erection of county and school buildings and New York will vote upon the question of holding a convention to revise the state constitution. Almost all the territories elect delegates to congress on November 2.

One by one the various states are altering their constitutions to conform to the date prescribed by the national constitution for national elections. Until this year Ohio has always been an October state and only a few years back half of the states held their elections between June and November. It mattered little in off years but in presidential years it offered a direct bid for corruption, and besides took up the time of the country with politics, to the detriment of business. Our own state elections are still held in June, as prescribed in our constitution, but at the last legislative session steps were taken to press the elections over to November. The legislature voted unanimously to submit a constitutional amendment involving the change to the people. This, under the rule, will be submitted to the legislature which meets this winter, and if it passes again it will go directly to the people.

In 526 after Christ Antioch in Syria was visited by an earthquake that, according to Gibbon, destroyed 250,000 persons, a conflux of strangers to the festival of the Ascension swelling the population of the city. At Lisbon in 1755 60,000 persons perished in six minutes. The shock of this earthquake was felt in Sweden, in the Alps, in the West Indies, on the shores of Lake Ontario and on the coast of Massachusetts. An earthquake destroyed 12,000 people beneath the ruins of the city of Carracas, Venezuela, in 1811. The city of Quito, in Ecuador, was destroyed in 1859, an earthquake in 1868 destroyed Arica, Arequipa and other fine cities of Peru and many thousands of persons perished. Over 300,000 persons were left homeless, and the U S. steamer Wateree was carried by a tidal wave ten miles inland. In 1693 an earthquake in Sicily destroyed 60,000 people.

POETRY AND FACT.

Yesterday it was remarked by THE OREGONIAN that if the earthquake that has now wrought so great havoc in Charleston, S C, had occurred twenty-five years ago the event would have been regarded throughout the Northern states as a direct interposition of Divine Providence for the punishment of a presumptuous and wicked people. The tendency of the human mind to reason in this way is finely set forth by Shakespeare in a summary of the wicked acts of King John and the horror of the English people thereat:

> No natural exhalation in the sky,
> No scope of nature, no distempered day,
> No common wind, no customed event,
> But they will pluck away his natural cause
> And call them meteors, prodigies and signs,
> Abortives, presages and tongues of heaven,
> Plainly denouncing vengeance upon John.

Here also we may reproduce what Shakespeare says about earthquakes:

> Diseased nature oftentimes breaks forth
> In strange eruptions; oft the teeming earth
> Is with a kind of colic pinched and vexed
> By the imprisoning of unruly wind
> Within her womb, which for enlargement striving
> Shakes the old beldame earth and topples down
> Steeples and moss-grown towers.

This is the poetic way of handling the subject, but there has been a collection of facts regarding earthquakes, based on observation, which are beginning to form a basis upon which some approach is already made to what may be called the law or science of earthquakes. The "dictionary word" for this science is "seismology." Study of seismic conditions is based largely on close observation of certain electrical phenomena, by which, chiefly, the time, duration, locality and area of these disturbances of the earth are predicted. As yet these observations are very imperfect, nor is it likely they will ever be so complete and accurate as to indicate the cause of these "strange eruptions" of "diseased nature." But they may show to some extent when the disturbances are to be expected, and so give warning, as we have to some extent already from meteorolgy warning of the occurrence of cyclones. Of final causes the human mind knows nothing whatever, and probably never will. By long observation it detects and classifies the phenomena of occurrences, their course it calls a "law," but of their cause it has no perception.

To sneer at a Union veteran as having been "Nothing but a surgeon, or a quartermaster in the army during the war," betrays ignorance or a disposition to be careless of justice. The surgeons who did field service were seldom out of severe fire, and few quartermasters escaped most perilous experiences. The list of surgeons killed on the field of battle during the war is large enough to show that they needed something rarer than anatomical knowledge and surgical skill to do their devoir nobly, and the promptness with which either side shelled an army train made a quartermaster's berth no bomb-proof, in support of which assertion the army lists of killed and wounded may be cited, while in the emergency of every great battle we find quartermasters volunteering to perform duties that are not included among the joys of a noncombatant. Rev Arthur Fuller, a Unitarian clergyman, and chaplain to a Massachusetts regiment, was killed at the battle of Fredricksburg, where he had volunteered to take a musket in a desperate charge. Gen. Hancock's wound was dressed by his surgeon on the front line under a most terrible artillery fire, and in general it may be said that no man could serve as field surgeon or quartermaster, during a campaign and lack the staying quality under fire that sends Falstaff's philosophy of soldiership, like Satan, to the rear.

A plea in favor of plagiarism (of which the world sees much now-a-days) which is ingenious and not without merit, is made by the Atlanta Constitution as follows:

> In these days plagiarism serves a useful purpose. So few people read anything outside of the literature of the hour that they ought to be grateful to the discriminating writers who steal good things wherever they find them and pass them off as their own. The plagiarist generally presents his readers with better stuff than he is capable of writing and nine times out of ten it is something that would have been missed by the readers of to-day.

The spoils of office in England are much richer than in the United States. The recent change in the government of that country put thirty-five peers or sons of peers into offices worth $550,000 a year, in addition to which nine peeresses receive $22,500. The patronage enjoyed by the aristocracy of England is a disgrace to a country in which thousands of the people are sunk in the lowest depths of poverty.

Mr Bascom, the Wisconsin prohibition leader, writes to another prohibitionist, saying: "We are not so much in danger of not succeeding as we are of failing after we have succeeded." There is much wisdom in this view of the subject.

Fifteen hundred people live in a single house—an enormous flat—in Mott and Elizabeth streets, New York. They are people of all colors and nationalities.

POLITICAL POINTS

INDIANA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept 2.—The republican state convention met at 11 o'clock. Senator Harrison was chosen chairman. The committee on resolutions reported a draft of a platform which was unanimously adopted. It demands a free ballot, declares that workingmen should be protected against the oppressions of corporations and monopolies and [illegible] and favors the reduction of the legal number of working hours where practicable.

The platform reaffirms the tariff plank of the republican party and demands that the circulating medium of the country, coin and paper alike, should be kept on an equal and permanent value and the surplus in the treasury should be applied toward reduction of the public debt. Enforcement of the civil service law is demanded and also the reservation of American lands for American settlers.

The platform declares that the watering of corporate stocks should be prevented by law. The granting of pensions to every honorably discharged Union soldier and sailor is recommended and the legislature is called upon to erect a state soldiers' home.

Respecting the liquor traffic, the platform declares in favor of legislative restriction and favors such laws as will permit the people in their several localities to invoke such measures of restriction as they may deem wise and to compel the traffic to compensate for the burdens it imposes upon society.

Sympathy with Ireland in her contest for home rule is expressed.

After reading and adopting the platform the convention nominated R. S. Robertson for lieutenant governor and Charles L. Griffin for secretary of state.

BLAINE AND THE PROHIBITION QUESTION.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—The Sun's editorial says: "From Blaine's successive speeches recently delivered in Maine it is evident he regards the prohibition movement as most alarming. No one can read his speech at Sebago without being impressed with the conviction that however eloquently and passionately he discussed the conduct of the administration for which his former antagonist is now responsible, his thoughts were really dwelling, and with the keenest anxiety, upon the threats and machinations of the prohibitionists. It would probably strike members of the free trade league as absurd to tell them that the power of the free traders was as nothing compared to that of the prohibitionists, but by actual demonstration in the past, and by the promise of the future such is the fact. Whatever diversion there may be from democracy in 1888 it is not likely to be brought about through the action of the free traders."

MISSOURI REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

SEDALIA, Mo, Sept 2.—The republican state convention adjourned sine die this morning. The question of submitting a prohibition amendment to the constitution, over which an all night wrangle was had, was compromised, the plank in question as adopted affirming that whenever any large number of voters petition the legislature for submission of an amendment providing for a change in the organic laws of the state it is the duty of that body to grant the petition.

A Cure of Pneumonia.

Mr T B Barnaby, of Owego, N. Y., says that his daughter was taken with a violent cold which terminated with Pneumonia and all the best physicians gave the case up and said she could live but a few hours at most. She was in this condition when a friend recommended DR. WM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and advised her to try it. She accepted it as a last resort and was surprised to find that it produced a marked change for the better, and by persevering a permanent cure was effected.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

THREE NEGROES LYNCHED.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Sept. 1.—Three negroes were lynched near McNutt lake, Leflore county, Monday night for attempted assault on some young ladies. The negroes had formed a conspiracy to carry out their designs. One of them was to secrete himself in the house during the day, and after nightfall when all was quiet he was to admit the others. He was discovered in the effort and made his escape, but was afterwards captured in the next county and brought back. The other two were also captured and had separate examinations. All three told the same story. After a full hearing they were taken out and hanged.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

AMPUTATION WITH CRUDE INSTRUMENTS.—Capt. Bosworth, of the American ship Reaper, reports an unusual experience while bound to Acapulco. In the South Pacific, during a heavy gale, seaman Kelly fell from aloft into the sea, striking the rail in descending. Ropes were thrown over as there was no time to lower a boat. Kelly secured one and was hauled aboard. Examination showed one leg to be badly shattered below the knee. It was bandaged and boxed in the best possible manner, but in about ten days showed certain signs of mortification—and that it would have to be amputated was plain. Kelly was willing enough, for there was a small chance of his life being saved by amputation. Capt. Bosworth read up what authorities he had, sharpened a carving knife and carpenter's saw and began work. The arteries were bound and the leg taken off above the knee. Kelly rested well, was landed at Acapulco and sent to San Francisco by steamer, the steamer's surgeon complimenting Bosworth upon his surgical abilities. Kelly is now in a hospital rapidly recovering without a second operation, although it was thought the flesh and skin would not grow over the bone. With the tools at hand the captain could not do quite the job he wanted to do or should have done, yet the result is satisfactory. Kelly said he considered himself as booked for Davy Jones's locker unless the leg was taken off, and smilingly told the captain to go ahead with his carpenter work, as the end would not be lengthened in any event.

RAIN.—The first rain of the season commenced falling at 6:40 yesterday morning. It was a gentle shower, which lasted till 12:30 P. M. and was as welcome as the flowers of spring. About 6 P. M. another slight shower fell. The amount which fell up to 6 o'clock last evening was one tenth of an inch. From Mr. E. J. Glass, in charge of the signal service station here, it is learned that the last general rain was from May 4 to 15, inclusive, during which time 1.32 inches fell. During the month of August just passed only three hundredths of an inch of rain fell, which is less than in any August since the signal station was established here, except August, 1885, in which no rain fell. Eastern visitors and strangers in general who have heard scandalous reports concerning the beautiful climate of Oregon will please make a note of the fact that from May 9 to September 2, almost four months, no general rain fell, though we had a few showers. And when we have had a good rain enough to do away with the smoke we shall have a month or two of delightful Indian summery kind of weather.

FALL GAME.—With the end of the summer comes the first rain and other good things, including young wood ducks, plover, etc., which are now in the market. It seems a little tough to begin shooting young ducks so early, but it is now or never as far as the wood ducks go, for they leave for other climes as soon as the rains set in. J. W. Whalley killed quite a lot of these toothsome birds on the 1st, and Geo. Bliss and a friend killed eighty down the Columbia. Sea trout came into market yesterday from Lewis river, and the same fish are making their appearance in the Sandy and will soon be plentiful. Among the game which makes its advent with the first rainstorm is the diaphanous but deliciously oleaginous spare rib and the succulent and nutritious tenderloin. The marble slabs in New Market were strewn with them yesterday, and they seemed to say: "summer is past, the harvest is ended and hog killing time has come."

TO RECOVER ON A BARLEY TRANSACTION.—Suit was commenced in the United States circuit court yesterday by Young & Nichols, commission merchants of Chicago, to recover damages in the sum of $1784.63 from Everding & Farrell of this city. Plaintiffs allege that in September, 1885, Everding & Farrell agreed with them to sell some 400 tons of barley, which they did. The barley did not come to hand and plaintiffs were obliged to buy enough in the market to make their sale good, and in consequence were out and injured commissions and all the amount above named. Everding & Farrell state that they never authorized Young & Nichols to sell any barley for them. The trouble arose through some misunderstanding with a party from this city who was in Chicago and who was looking for a reliable agent for them. They have no idea that they are liable for any damages, and do not intend to pay any unless they are convinced to the contrary.

PRIZES FOR THE MECHANICS' FAIR.—At the last meeting of the directors of the Mechanics' Fair it was decided to do away with the bronze medals heretofore used, as they are not at all popular with exhibitors. This year they will offer two sizes in gold and silver medals, the large size being called grand gold and grand silver, the smaller ones gold medals and silver medals. This will enable them to give more medals, also to state in their published premium list what premiums will be given in each class. It may also be stated that competition for all premiums is open for the Pacific northwest. Reduced rates to the fair have been given by the Oregon and California railroad company, Oregon railroad company and O. R. & N. Co., of one and one-fifth fare for round trip tickets, good for ten days.

APPEALED.—Some time since the city of East Portland passed an ordinance to prevent cattle from running at large, with a penalty attached that loose animals be impounded and one dollar be collected on each and every animal taken by a properly authorized officer. On July 14, H. F. McMillan corraled twenty five cows belonging to Thomas Fallon and then sued and got judgment against Fallon in Justice Bullock's court for $25. Fallon in his answer denied that his cows were running loose, and that they were being driven through the streets in custody of an authorized agent, also that he was deprived of the use of his cattle, etc., to his damage in the sum of $500. All this McMillan denies. Yesterday Fallon filed notice of an appeal in the case to the state circuit court.

IN ADVANCE OF ENGLISH HISTORY.—Two interesting entertainments will take place in the Tabernacle on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 14 and 15. Dr. Eccleston, a celebrated lecturer from New York, will, with the aid of the latest improved dissolving apparatus and oxy hydrogen light, illustrate and describe a visit to Westminster abbey and old and new St. Paul's cathedrals of London. The gentleman brings his own special artist to manipulate the apparatus, which throws an immense picture on an area of 250 square feet of canvas. Tickets will shortly be placed on sale at the usual places.

A PRISONER WON'T GO.—W. McKnight, from Walla Walla, who was arrested here Wednesday night on a charge of the larceny of $900 from Charles Rose, at first agreed to return with Deputy Sheriff Lampkin to Walla Walla without a requisition, but having since consulted an attorney, changed his mind and now refuses to go with the sheriff unless he produces the necessary documents. Sheriff Lampkin will have to send or go to Olympia for them, and in the meantime McKnight's attorney will swear out a writ of habeas corpus for his release.

CHINESE TO THE FRONT.—About 500 Chinamen are now at work on the Cascades branch of the Northern for Hale & Smith and Hunt. John Hamilton, who has been up there, says there will be no trouble from the white men employed, as all white men who wish can obtain work and all the Chinese who can be secured will be employed. A number more Chinamen will be sent up at once by Seid Back, contractor, who has furnished nearly all sent so far. Mr. Hamilton leaves for the front this morning.

ARRESTED FOR GAMBLING.—Wednesday afternoon George T. Finn, a barber, was arrested by Officer Simmons on a charge of gambling, preferred by Fred Fenton. The latter claims that Finn beat him at short cards in a saloon at the corner of Morrison and Fifth streets out of $30. The game was one called poker. Yesterday in the police court Finn was arraigned, when he pleaded not guilty and his case was continued for examination until to-day. Fenton is a mattress maker by trade.

BOY KILLED.—A boy about 14 years of age, son of Mr. Kemp of Corvallis, while playing on some freight cars at Suver station, in Polk county, on Tuesday evening with another boy named Gamble, was killed in some way not known to any one. Young Gamble said he left the other boy on the car safe when he went home. Young Kemp's body was found near the track with a bruise on the back. The cars were not in motion, therefore there is some doubt as to how he received the fatal bruise.

FOR STEALING BISHOP MORRIS'S BLANKETS.—When the Rt. Rev. B. Wistar Morris, D. D., bishop of Oregon, was travelling in Lake county last month he stopped in Lakeview on the 12th over night. While there a fellow named Jim Wilson stole a pair of blankets belonging to the bishop. He has since been arrested for the theft and Judge Webster this week sentenced him to eighteen months' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

POLICE COURT.—In the police court yesterday the charge against Ah Sam of being an accomplice with Lee King in the larceny of $15 from Ah Get was dismissed. Lee King was held and will be tried to-day. The district attorney had Ah Sam turned loose, as on investigating the case he learned that Sam wasn't implicated in it. There is said, however, to be sufficient evidence to convict Lee King.

BRANCH TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—The Western Union telegraph company has reopened its branch office on Morrison street, between First and Second, at the rear of Feldenheimer's jewelry store, and have arranged to give prompt dispatch to messages filed there for transmission. This office will be a great convenience to guests at the hotels in that vicinity and to our up-town business men.

CRUSHED BY A LOG.—Last week Wednesday, says the Vancouver Independent, a man named Millen Wolf, working in the logging camp at the Gunning place on Vancouver lake, was killed by a log rolling back from the truck upon him. He died almost instantly, being terribly crushed. He had no relatives in this part of the country.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge Deady will deliver an opinion in this court this morning in the case of the U. S. vs. Reed and Eccles.

WILL SOME SCIENTIST EXPLAIN?

PORTLAND, Sept. 2.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Will you kindly allow me, through your columns, to ask some geological or hydrostatical scientist to show the reason why water bubbles from numerous springs and appears to be everywhere obtainable, at moderate depth, on Mount Tabor, whilst on the level lands lying around it great depths must be sunk to procure water? J. FRED CLARK.

THE SCHOOL BOARD

A Lot of Bad Wood—Vacancies in the Staff of Teachers Filled.

An adjourned meeting of the school board was held last evening. President Wasserman in the chair, all the members present.

Director Durham reported that the wood delivered to the Park and Falling schools was not satisfactory, that delivered to the Park school was too small, and as regards the Falling school it was found that big wood was piled on top with small sticks between and at the bottom.

COMMUNICATIONS, PETITIONS, ETC.

From Mrs. Nellie F. M. Troup, withdrawing her petition for a position as teacher; placed on file.

From Lucy L. Annis, for a position as teacher of North school; placed on file.

Applications for teachers' positions were received from Minnie Starr, Ella Davenport, F. L. Grepler and E. F. Davison.

Anna Knapp asked to be transferred from Falling school sixth grade to eighth grade North school; placed on file.

From Mary Spaulding, asking for extension of her leave of absence for another month; granted.

A letter was received from Mrs. E. R. Phelps from Buffalo, New York, asking whether she could have her position as teacher to take charge at the beginning of the spring term.

THE WATER COMMISSION

Contracts Let Yesterday for the Head Work at Bull Run.

Yesterday afternoon an adjourned meeting of the water committee was held. Chairman Failing presiding and eleven members present.

The sub committee presented a report of a meeting held at 11 A. M., together with the bids received for the head work, and recommended that a contract for the conduit be let to P. O'Nell and for the roadway to the Oregon Paving & Contract company, adopted.

Following are the proposals:

	Road	Conduit	Total
Bays & Jefferys	$3210 00	$4580 00	$8190 00
Clark & Mann	2910 50	5700 00	8610 50

Franey & Keeney	2208 50

The total amount of both contracts is $6090, which is a trifle over the engineer's estimate.

THE EAST SIDE

AN OLD LADY SURPRISED.

Almost everybody in East Portland and vicinity knows "Grandma" Claggett, and none know her but to love and respect her as a kind hearted Christian woman. During the week a number of her friends and neighbors made it up among themselves to give her a surprise, and Wednesday evening was fixed as the time. Accordingly when Wednesday came Mrs. Claggett was invited by Mrs. Leech to spend the evening at her residence near by, and she accepted the invitation. She had no sooner left the house than a committee of ladies called and informed Mr. James Claggett, her son, of what was going on, and he of course was willing to assist them in their undertaking. The house was soon arranged, and by 8 o'clock nearly a hundred of her friends and neighbors were assembled in and outside the house. When all had been arranged Mrs. Claggett was sent for, and on arriving at the house was completely overcome by the kind greeting she received from her friends. The time was spent most enjoyably for two hours in singing and social talk. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served, after which a beautiful large cake ornamented with the name "Grandma" was presented to her, for which she returned thanks. At 11 o'clock the large party took their leave and retired to their homes. The surprise was genuine.

CAMPING OUTFIT BURNED.

A gentleman who came up from St. Johns yesterday reports that the camping outfit, consisting of a quantity of provisions, blankets and tents, belonging to a new gang of Chinamen employed cutting cord wood on Hoyt's place, a short distance this side of St. Johns, was entirely destroyed by fire while they were at work some distance from camp. No one knows how it caught, as there was no fire near when the Chinamen left camp.

SUDDEN ILLNESS.

The many friends of Mr. Henry Meyer will be pained to learn that he was taken suddenly and seriously ill about 8 o'clock yesterday morning and has been under the care of physicians ever since. The nature of the disease had not been fully determined at a late hour last night.

YOUNG MEN'S MEETING.

The young men's meeting in connection with the East Portland branch of the Y. M. C. A. to-morrow evening is expected to be of more than ordinary interest. All the members are requested to be present, as matters of importance will be brought up for consideration.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. W. B. Hall and Mrs. C. H. Wheeler, of Hanson's addition, left yesterday for a week's visit to friends at Forest Grove.

Mrs. Davis, sister of Mrs. R. H. Holmes, who has been visiting friends and relatives in California for the past three months, returned yesterday.

Mrs. Ridge, wife of the late John Ridge, the eminent journalist and poet of Nevada county, Cal., who has been visiting with the family of Col. Cornelius Taylor in this city, left on the O. & C. railroad for her home yesterday.

Mr. Welsh Love, the owner of the team which ran away and damaged two or three wagons a few days ago, was in town yesterday and settled for all the damages. He says he can stand the loss of his horse, and he is thankful no person was seriously injured.

D. W. Jarvis and wife, of Independence, who left this city about two months ago for a visit to their old homes at Rutherford and Glenwood, Iowa, have returned, and after spending a short time visiting with the family of Hon. John Whiteaker left for their home at Independence on Tuesday last.

FIRE COMMISSIONERS.

A regular meeting of the board of fire commissioners was held yesterday, present Messrs. Story and Ackerman, Chief Engineer Morgan, Supt. Fire Alarm Caffey and Secretary Wallace in attendance.

Applications for positions in the department were received from Albert Meyer and M. J. Duffy; referred to chief engineer.

The reports of the chief engineer and superintendent of the fire alarm were received and adopted.

On motion of Ackerman it was ordered that tin signs be painted and attached to all fire alarm boxes, showing where the key for the same may be found; referred to the chief engineer with power to act.

STATE W. C. T. U.

Proceedings of the Fourth Annual Convention at Corvallis

CORVALLIS, Sept. 1. 1886.

The fourth annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Oregon opened its regular session in the chapel of the State Agricultural college last night. Mrs. A. P. Riggs, of Portland, state president, was in the chair. Upon the platform were Mrs. M. B. Reese, national organizer, of Ohio; Mrs. M. L. Edwards, of Newberg, and Mrs. O. N. Lucas, of Pendleton, vice presidents.

The exercises began with singing and reading and prayer by Rev. Mr. Hershner.

The Corvallis Band of Hope thereupon gave an interesting marching and singing exercise, which was warmly applauded.

After an anthem by the choir, Mrs. Addie Baldwin, of Corvallis, delivered the address of welcome, a well timed eloquent effort, which received well merited applause.

Mrs. E. Irvine, of Albany, responded with some excellent remarks upon the W. C. T. U. and its work. Many splendid ideas were advanced by the speaker, evincing close study of the temperance cause and its practical relation to the nation. She was warmly applauded.

"The Dear Old Home" quartette was then sung in an excellent manner, after which the delegates and friends present indulged in greetings and words of welcome.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Convention opened at 9 o'clock with scripture reading, remarks and prayer by Mrs. Edwards of Newberg, followed by a general season of prayer and singing.

Upon the convention being called to order by Mrs. President Riggs, the secretary, Mrs. R. M. Robbs, called the roll of officers and members.

The chair then appointed the following committees after a vote by the convention:

On Credentials—Mrs. I. A. Nash, Mrs. P. F. Portland, Mrs. C. F. Shipley.

On Resolutions—Miss Jane Weeden, Mrs. C. E. Shipley, Mrs. Crandall, Mrs. Brown of Astoria, Mrs. T. J. Wilson, Mrs. Bowerman, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. J. T. Crocker.

On Plans of Work—Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. M. V. Brown, Mrs. I. A. Nash.

On Finance—Mrs. Marks, Mrs. H. Hillman, Miss E. Irvine, Mrs. Condon, Mrs. J. D. Lee.

On Courtesies—Mrs. Addition, Miss Bushnell, Mrs. Driggs.

At this juncture Mrs. M. B. Reese, national organizer, was introduced, and on motion of Mrs. Addition made a member of the convention. The convention then continued to appoint its committees:

On Union Signal—Mrs. Driggs, Mrs. Lucas, Miss Erskine. Mrs. Lucas resigned and Mrs. Kellogg, of East Portland, was appointed.

On Declaration of Principles—Mrs. Graham, Mrs. McAllister, Miss Charlotte Roberts.

The committee on credentials then reported the following as entitled to seats in the convention:

Corvallis—Mrs. I. Graham, Mrs. Belknap, Mrs. H. B. Hillman.

Eugene—Mrs. C. T. Condon, Mrs. O. R. Bean.

Halsey—Mrs. T. V. Wilson, Mrs. Kynaston, Mrs. M. B. Taylor.

Portland—Mrs. Merton, Mrs. C. F. Shipley, Miss J. D. Weeden, Mrs. Dalgleish.

Albany—Miss E. Irvine, Mrs. R. M. Robertson, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Shane.

Yaquina—Mrs. Coll Van Cleave.

East Portland—Mrs. Kate P. Mendenhall, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. A. R. Kellogg.

Salem—Mrs. S. W. Scriber, Miss M. I. Allen.

Forest Grove—Mrs. S. C. Roberts.

Hillsboro—Mrs. L. O. Crandall.

Philomath—Mrs. Emma Miller, Miss Allen.

Pendleton—Mrs. O. W. Lucas.

McMinnville—Mrs. A. J. Whitmore, Mrs. Collier.

Silverton—Mrs. Ellen Robbins.

Oakland—Mrs. Fanny Bloomfield.

Solo—Mrs. P. E. Pentland.

Newberg—Mrs. Maria Bowerman, Mrs. Mary Townsend, Mrs. Vira Cook.

Lebanon—Mrs. J. M. Marks.

Astoria—Mrs. M. A. Brown.

Independence—Miss Nellie Hill, Mrs. Conway, Mrs. Ida Vaughn.

Dallas—Mrs. J. D. Lee, Miss Biddle.

Monmouth—Mrs. Cattron.

Ashland—Mrs. J. D. Crocker.

Erskine—Mrs. Moore, Miss Erskine.

Ohio—Mrs. M. B. Reese, national organizer.

Delegates from the Y. W. C. T. U.—Miss C. F. Roberts and Miss E. Crawford, of Halsey, Miss Hattie Bushnell, of Eugene.

The convention then spent several minutes in the introduction and greeting of visitors, after which a song, "Blest be the Tie that Binds," was sweetly sung.

The state president, Mrs. A. R. Riggs, then delivered her annual address, which was a brief but valuable document, full of good thoughts and wise suggestions.

The amendment to the Oregon school laws requiring instruction in the effects of alcohol was quite thoroughly discussed, but it appeared to be the opinion of the convention that the law was inoperative on account of its feeble penalty, and that a new statute on the subject should be enacted by the next legislature.

The convention by a full vote donated $10 to Miss Charlotte Gray, missionary on the continent of Europe.

Willie Ready and Oliver Gates were chosen pages, and on vote, decorated with a white ribbon.

Mrs. Nash gave an earnest exhortation for the establishment of country auxiliary unions, saying that if the temperance people expect to secure the vote of Oregon two years hence they must attend to the country sentiment. Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Coll Van Cleave, Mrs. C. E. Shipley, Mrs. M. B. Reese, Mrs. Belle W. Cooke, Mrs. M. L. Driggs and other followed with interesting remarks.

Mrs. R. M. Robb, secretary, read the report of the executive committee, which was adopted.

The convention then closed its forenoon session with prayer.

A HOWL FROM THE SEATTLE REDS.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer of Tuesday says editorially:

From all accounts it is evident that the treatment of the Seattle Reds at Portland on Saturday was shameful. The Portland club, with its umpire and other aiders and abettors, appears to have thrown aside courtesy, fairness and all the other qualities which should characterize the intercourse between amateurs of gentlemanly instincts. We have information of the most reliable character—information coming from persons having no interest in either of the baseball clubs or the cities which they represent—that it was determined long before the game that the Seattle nine was to be beaten, fairly if possible, but unfairly, if necessary. The umpire was to use his utmost endeavors to accomplish the desired end, and it was generally understood that the playing of the Seattles was to go for nothing—they were to be beaten, no matter how greatly they outplayed their opponents. So long as the present disreputable measures are employed by the baseball managers of Portland the Seattle amateurs will probably have little to do with them. Our nine is composed of gentlemen and they do not wish to contest with any but gentlemen.

Because this paper is in favor of fair play it would like to publish the information of the most reliable character which the Post Intelligencer has. Will that paper please furnish it? The facts are: The Portlands (besides the disputed run in the eighth inning) made five runs, all of them through errors on the part of the Seattles. The Seattles made four runs through errors of the home team. No one will deny that the Portlands were entitled to five of their runs or claim that the Seattles were entitled to more than four. So, for the sake of argument, let it be admitted that Buchtel was out in the eighth inning. The Seattles were beaten no matter how greatly they outplayed their opponents and certainly not through fault of the umpire.

There is an unfortunate omission in the closing sentence of the P. I.'s kick. It should have stated "is composed principally of gentlemen," and that would have left a loop-hole to explain how it happened that a very important infielder did not play in Portland. The private conduct of a baseball nine who play for gate receipts, and in this case they are professionals, is not a subject for public discussion. When it comes to gentlemanly conduct on the ball field the Portland club have nothing to learn from the Seattle Reds.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Dress Goods
—AND—
Silk [illegible]

We are able to announce the opening of our Fall and Winter seasons at this early date from the fact that our first arrivals of Foreign Fabrics have come to hand ahead of even our own expectations. Mr MEIER has been in the European market all Spring and Summer, and we have had the very important advantage of his placing our orders with the French and English manufacturers. Our direct importations are large—larger this season than any previous one—which we found necessary to meet the wants of our greatly increased and constantly increasing trade.

We have now open and on sale
ALL LEADING NEW LINES,
And in addition are showing many
EXCLUSIVE NOVELTIES IN DRESS GOODS,
NOVELTIES IN PLUSHES, VELVETS & SILKS,
Manufactured to our order from design and advanced samples, from which selections have been made by Mr MEIER. These special lines are in limited quantity only.

Owing to the sharp advance in all Foreign Fabrics, our prices for this season's trade in all lines will be found very tempting offers. From the important fact of our having taken an early advantage of the market, we are able to offer many lines at prices that we cannot at present duplicate or land them for.

FREIGHTS—No arrivals during the week. The Dunelm sailed with salmon and oil for London. On spot the Carrier Dove, soft wood, accepted business understood to be 32s 6d for orders. The engaged fleet moves slowly, and there is no marked disposition to take up spot tonnage. Iron asks 40s and more, exporters' ideas being 38s 9d@40s. As wheat now is locally the certain prospect of loss with new engagements renders business not at all attractive.

WHEAT—Receipts for the week 1552 tons valley and 2701 tons Walla Walla, against 1827 and 5513 tons the same week last year and 643 and 928 tons the preceding week this year. August foreign shipments were 3858 tons or 77,166 centals.

The market at this time is weak with a tendency to more ease, the condition being brought about by foreign advices which are quoting wheat lower than a week ago. The only apparent cause is a sudden change of weather over England and France from rain to sunshine. The change comes in good time to be of use as harvest weather but late to materially add to the outturn. It has checked the upward course of the markets and sent them reeling backward. Probably English trade is as much surprised at the turn as is that of this country. Weather has done more than speculation or manipulation could hope to do. The turn may be of short duration or it may be of some length and consequence, but if conditions are soon to be changed for the better they must be aided by other countries than the consuming ones. India is again being looked to in the belief that her this year's crop has been overstated. American markets have felt foreign advices and close lower as against a week ago. Our own market presents weakness, but it is questioned if purchases have been on a lower basis. Receipts have increased both because of new buying and from a desire to have wheat at tide water. Interior valley bids are generally $1 20, but at competitive points more is still being paid, some statements saying up to $1 25, with bulk of sales somewhere around $1 22½. Shippers will not openly quote more than $1 20, yet say they have paid more and will still do better for round lots here or desirable parcels in the interior. The foreign market does not justify over $1 20 on wharf. Walla Walla grades have sold in the interior at old figures, although some buyers have reduced bids. As late as Monday 62½c sacked was paid at Pendleton, which would fully equal $1 17½ here. Shippers name $1 12½@1 15 here, quote the same in the interior but pay more. Such has been the condition all month, and is usually the case when local prices are above a parity with the cargoes market. Buyers inaugurated the system of paying above such a parity and will find leveling slow work. The stir in San Francisco is losing volume and values have receded there. Our market, as indicated above, is difficult to quote, but $1 15 and $1 22½ is all that is justified. When more is had it is for exceptionally choice wheat in very favored position. Shippers are wholly apart and as long as they remain so there is little prospect of an established decline. Sellers have high ideas and would be slow to lower pretensions. Foreign grain markets are lower as against one week ago. The easier feeling noted last Thursday has gathered force and cargo quotations are 6d to 1s lower. As harvest prospects furnished the principal basis for late advances, they also brought about the present weak condition. It does not appear altogether reasonable that prices should be so affected by a sudden change in weather over England and France, yet this is the only visible influence now working. Some time elapsed after short crops abroad were accounted a certainty before speculation took hold, yet with but a few days' brilliant weather it drops wheat as a thing capable of burning. London dates to 16th ult. said a deficit of about 20 per cent., as compared with last year, had been accepted by the trade as an outcome of French and English harvests. New advices from Russia were that crops had been seriously injured in several provinces by two weeks' rain; that the Roumanian crop was also damaged by rain, and that the Hungarian was below average. To this was added the feeling that the Indian crops had been overestimated. Reports that natives in the Punjaub were making a determined effort to store the wheat in pits, which had become exhausted, before the country was drained by export demands, favored previous reports that old weat was very scarce and the new crop a short one. The Indian agricultural authorities have made some changes in their crop reports. Six weeks ago they put the Punjaub crop at 2,693,000 tons, and four weeks later reduce it to 1,825,000 tons. This and other corrections makes the Indian outturn 6,924,364 tons, while the same authority made last year's 3,096,386 tons, indicating a decrease equal to 5,000,000 quarters. The first estimate of the United Kingdom wheat crop appeared about the middle of August, but it could only be a guess, because cutting in the north and center of England cannot be general until the middle of September this year. It puts the crop at 86.8 per cent. of an average, and as last year's crop was 1.4 above the full average, it follows that the yield this year is 14.6 worse than last year, which means a shortage of 1,400,000 quarters, and would reduce the present year's total crop 8,500,000 quarters, in which case wants during the season of 1886-87 would reach 17,500,000 to 18,000,000 quarters. The August report of the Washington bureau was considered in England to be final. That gave the United States crop as 430,000,000 bushels. The increase in the American visible was looked upon abroad as due to forced deliveries from American farmers by reason of pecuniary necessities. Of course this resume is of interest only in that it at one time, and only a short while ago, indicated the feeling abroad. That the market took a sudden worse turn with sunshine will not be regarded by many as a final set back. They will argue, and not without reason, that the present condition can only be temporary without all conditions are worse than so far proven. Operating against any immediate or early improvement will soon be the deliveries of British grain. These, if liberal, will be a depressing influence and as the British farmer's wealth for two or three years past has not troubled him with its largeness, he may be found to realize early. If so the demand for outside wheat must be affected and prices cannot be expected to change much for the better. There is now in sight a spell of depression and the American seller will find his faith in higher prices failing him.

MILLSTUFF—Market quiet but steady. Supplies fair and San Francisco shipments light. Quote jobbing values: bran $14@15; chop $20@21; shorts $15@16. Ground barley sells out at $26 and oil meal $32 50.

POTATOES—Market very quiet in the absence of any other than a local call and dealers handle but few. The quotation remains $1@1 10.

ONIONS—In full supply with fair request. The jobbing price is $1@1 10, with the inside figure paid for choice.

BUTTER—Selling prices of best grades are firmer, 22½@25c being asked for choice roll. Receipts only fair. Brine in large packages 15@20c. Store kinds dull at 12½@15c. California in half barrels and kits is received by each steamer, and a lot of Tillamook came in on Monday, selling at 17½@22½c.

EGGS—Receipts only fair for the week and at the close stocks are light, the market being hardly steady at 18c.

FRUITS, ETC.—Apples and pears in request for shipment, buyers paying 50@55c for apples and 90c @$1 for Bartlett pears. Peaches sell at $1 50 for choicest, grapes at $1 with a lot in from Southern Oregon, bananas $3, Sicily lemons $10 50 and California $5, tomatoes 75c. Melons in large trading at $1 50@2 and cantaloupes $2@2 25.

Salmon Shipments.

Shipments of salmon foreign during the month of August were 40,450 cs by the Ralmonstrant to Liverpool, and 17,001 cs by the Dunelm to London. The movement East by rail continues quite liberal, while that to San Francisco is even. Total shipments since April 1 show an increase of 30,442 cs over the same five months last season. Shipments by each steamer to San Francisco for the month were as follows:

5—State	250	23—State	120
8—Oregon	795	26—Oregon	184

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Government bonds were dull and rather heavy. For the first time this week the opening prices of stocks were decidedly strong, advances ranging from ½ to ⅝ generally, while Pacific Mail was up ⅝ and Louisville & Nashville was down ⅛. There was more activity in early trading than at any time during the present depression in business, but it soon died away and the usual dullness succeeded. Prices were firm, and Jersey Central was decidedly strong, but the early gains were afterwards lost, and at noon prices were at most entirely different from the opening. A stronger tone then prevailed, lasting until about 2 P. M., by which time fractional advances had been established. There were slight recessions for these figures in the last hour, and the market closed rather heavy.

The Mail and Express says: In the mining market to-day sales were few, and no important features were developed. Rappahannock sold at 10, Texan 68, Union Consolidated 48@50, North Belle Isle 2, Bodie 2 05, Chrysolite 48, Molton 2, Sierra Nevada 5.

MONEY, BONDS AND STOCKS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Money on call, quiet at from 5 to 7, closing 6 bid. Prime paper, 4@5. Sterling exchange, quiet and steady at $4 81¼ for sixty day bills, $4 84 for demand.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Receipts—Wheat, 76,500 ctls; flour, 13,500 qr sks; oats, 100 ctls; potatoes, 4300 sks; barley, 7400 ctls.

Freights—Quiet, with little disposition on part of exporters to make new engagements.

Chartered—For merchandise to Sydney, Bk Spartan.

Bags—The market is steadier and the demand somewhat better; outside lots held at 6c.

Oats—Market weak at $1 17½@1 25 for Oregon; stocks on hand are large, although receipts past 48 hours have been light.

Potatoes—Hardly so firm owing to large receipts yesterday; choice qualities but little changed, but poorer kinds cheaper and difficult to sell.

Wool—There are not many buyers in the market, and extreme prices not possible; quotations nominal at 17@22c for Eastern Oregon and 20@25c for Valley.

Hops—Buyers and sellers apart: very little doing; the undertone is easier; old, 15@20c; new, 27½@30c. Eastern markets generally inactive.

Millstuffs—Quiet; bran, $15@15 50; middlings, $16@17.

Provisions—Quiet and prices shade lower.

Butter—Steady at 24@27½c.

Eggs—Firm at 30c.

Salmon—Steadily held for higher prices; few buyers.

Barley—Rather firmer; No. 1 feed, 87½@90c. Seller the year, 89⅝.

Wheat—Spot market weak and turn cheaper; No. 1 shipping, $1 31¼@1 33¾. Futures, quiet but steady; buyer season, $1 44⅝; buyer year, $1 40½; seller year, $1 33¾. Wheat firm at close; $1 45¼ buyer season; $1 41½ buyer year; $1 33¾ seller year.

Stocks in city warehouses—Wheat, 15,500 tons; barley, 5700 tons; oats, 714 tons.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Wheat opened 76c September, 77¾c October, 80c November, 81¼ December. At noon, 76⅝c September, 78¼c October, 80⅜c November, 81⅜c December. Wheat, shade firmer. Closed 76⅝c September, 78⅜c October, 80½c November, 81⅞c December.

Pork, $10 40 October; lard, $6 87½ October; ribs, $6 67½ October; short ribs, $6 75 cash.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Cattle—Receipts 10,000; prime, firm; common, weak but steady; shipping steers, 950@1,500 pounds, $3 25@5 25; stockers and feeders, $2@3 50; through Texas cattle $2 25@2 90; western rangers, very dull; natives and half breeds, $2 50@3 50; cows, $2 50@2 75. The history of the cattle market for the day can be related in very few words. Prices are the lowest since 1878, and the number on sale the largest, with the exception of January last. With fresh arrivals there were some 16,000 to 17,000 on the market. Some fancy 1600 lbs steers sold at $5@5 20, and such were the only class for which there was a fixed valuation. Western rangers were extremely dull and lower, there being some 10,000 range cattle on sale.

Hogs—Receipts, 17,000; rough and mixed, $4@4 80; packing and shipping, $4 50@5 10; light, $3 75@5 85.

BROWNSVILLE NOTES.

BROWNSVILLE, Or., Sept. 2.

Dr. McCauley has dissolved partnership with Dr. Starr here lately.

Mr. A. Masterson, of Prineville, is here on a short visit with his family.

Charles Younger has just returned from a week's visit to relatives on the Sound.

The new tailor shop of the woolen mills company has shut down, but still have one man at work.

Several of our business men have been to Portland lately, and now large stocks of new goods are coming in.

Prof. Walker and family started out to-day on a trip east of the mountains for the benefit of his wife's health.

The district school of North Brownsville opens next Monday morning, Prof. Strange and Miss Hattie Long teachers.

The farmers in this whole section are jubilant because the narrow gauge road are putting in the bridges on the Santiam.

The press and material for the newspaper, the Brownsville Informant, arrived here yesterday morning, and next week the first copy will be issued.

Minor Jackson's little child died last week. The body was taken to Portland and buried by the side of his wife. Within ten days he lost both wife and child.

The weather the past few days has been much cooler, and the light sprinkle of rain last Monday night has put a damper on so much fire, so the smoke is not quite so bad.

Hop picking is in full blast now, and good progress is being made in all the yards except Kirk & White's. They broke down some part of the engine that drives the fan, and have to wait for repairs from Portland. They expect to commence drying again to-day. Most of the pickers here are Chinamen. The crop will be of good quality, but rather light.

Last Saturday, while the family of Mr. Eastham were over visiting their adjoining neighbor, Mr. John Nichols, who was lately burned out, they discovered fire on their own premises, and a crowd hurried over and found an old house near their new dwelling on fire, and by hard work succeeded in saving their new house and also the barn, but it was a close call. How the fire originated was a mystery, as no one was at home. The loss was not heavy.

INJUNCTION GRANTED.

In the district court at Seattle this week Judge Greene rendered a decision in the case brought by the Northern Pacific Railroad company against saloon keepers along the line of the Cascade division, asking for an injunction to prohibit the sale of liquors. The decision was in favor of the Northern Pacific, and the injunction was granted. Following are the main points in the opinion, which was in writing:

Eighth—The county commissioners in passing on the questions of fact preliminary to issuance of license act in a quasi-judicial capacity, and are not liable in that capacity to injunction unless, perhaps, in extraordinary cases where guilty of fraud or collusion. No fraud or collusion not falling within the maxim, "damnum, absque injura," on their part is intended in this complaint.

Ninth—Actual or purposed applicants for license are not liable to injunction to prevent them from getting licenses and selling thereunder unless the actual or purposed application is fraudulent. But a court of equity will anticipate and enjoin what it would pursue and set aside.

Tenth—Such an application is fraudulent when it is made with full knowledge of facts which are a complete bar to the application.

Eleventh—A court of equity will enjoin a party from proceeding in a fraudulent line of conduct, exposing him to a civil as well as a criminal liability, when such proceeding is calculated to inflict irreparable injury on the plaintiff or is a public nuisance in which the plaintiff is especially aggrieved.

YAMHILL NOTES

MCMINNVILLE, Aug. 31.

School begins at the Baptist college to-morrow.

Bricklaying has begun on Cook's new hotel at the corner of E and Third streets.

Mr. E. L. E. White, one of the proprietors of the Reporter, is on a visit to Victoria.

The Daily Reporter will make its appearance to-morrow from the press of D. C. Ireland & Co.

Prof. Freund of North Yamhill has moved to town and opened a law office over the First National bank.

About fifteen young ladies and boys left here to-day for Dallas to go to work to-morrow in the hop yards of Sheriff Graves.

It is estimated that the surplus wheat crop of this county will bring nearly $1,000,000 into the county at the present price.

County fair begins next Monday. The county fairs heretofore have been a success, and great efforts are being put forth to make this fair better than any previous one.

Huston Bros., near Lafayette, threshed 40,000 bushels of wheat in twenty-seven and one-half days and went into winter quarters. J. S. Hibbs threshed 27,000 in eighteen days.

Hon. J. C. Braley is at Sodaville. Luther Shofe is on a visit to Brownsville. M. U. Gortner moved to Amity yesterday. Will I. Turner left yesterday for Sprague. Horace Ramsdell of Portland, spent Sunday in town.

INDIAN WARS OF THE NORTHWEST.

PORTLAND, Aug. 31, 1886.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Multnomah camp No. 2, Indian war veterans of north Pacific coast extended an invitation to Hon. Elwood Evans, of Tacoma, W. T., to address them on November 3, on matters connected with the Indian wars on this northwestern coast. Mr. Evans has kindly consented to favor them and a rich treat may be anticipated, as the gentleman is well posted as to the causes leading to the wars, the incidents connected therewith, and in addition is well known to be a speaker of more than ordinary ability.

It is expected also that veterans from other encampments will favor us with their presence, an invitation having been extended to the members of each camp in the state. It is hoped that veterans not in the organization from far and near will favor us with their presence. Certainly the citizens of Portland will turn out in numbers to hear one so well versed in the history of the coast and so favorably known to its people.

November 3, 1886, will be a red letter day to all who listen to our friend.

M. R. HATHAWAY, Secretary.

Dyspepsia's distress is relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has cured many severe cases.

Peculiar

In many important points, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to other medicines.

Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom.

Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered."

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. It really

Is a Peculiar Medicine

Peculiar in the confidence it gains among all classes of people, one bottle always sells another.

Peculiar in the originality and effectiveness of its advertising. Its methods are continually being copied by competitors.

Peculiar in the care and neatness with which it is put up, Hood's Sarsaparilla gains favor at a glance.

Do not be induced to buy other preparations. Be sure to get "the Peculiar Medicine."
